

SBP's Schedule during Christmas and New Year's Holidays

Due to the observance of the Christmas and New Year's holidays, the offices of the Superintendency of Banks of Panama (SBP) will be closed on Monday, December 26, 2011 and Monday, January 2, 2012.

Nevertheless, according to S.B.P. Resolution No. 124-2006 dated 4

December 2006, it is up to each Bank to determine whether or not to close on these days.

Banks must take the necessary measures to inform their customers of the schedule adopted, including such measures as placing a visible notice in all their facilities.

Furthermore, Banks must inform the Superintendency of Banks of the schedule adopted and also maintain appropriate security at banking facilities to permit their customers and employees to carry out their transactions and operations with confidence.
